

My Faith and My Church Family

Christian - a born again, spirit-filled believer.

I believe the good news gospel of Jesus Christ and His ability to transform lives here and now. There is so much more to life than what you can see, hear, touch, taste, and smell. To experience all of this life to the fullest you must be "born again." In other words, you must experience a spiritual birth as well as your physical birth.

"Unless a man is born of both water and of the Spirit he cannot know the Kingdom of God" John 3:3

"Born once, die twice; born twice, die once." Do you know what this means? If not, please ask me.

I am an active member of Grace Community Fellowship of Richwood. Our vision is to advance the Kingdom of God in Brazosport one life and one family at a time.

Our church is a "cell" church. Our church family is subdivided into smaller family groups called "cells." But hey, what other kind of church would an anatomy guy go to, right? We meet all together on Sunday morning for a really cool celebration time of singing followed by a practical message from one of our elders. Each cell then gathers in a home on Wednesday evening for a meal and a discussion of Sunday's message. This is where church gets 'real.' Great friendships are forged here as we discuss how the Sunday morning message can be practically implemented in our lives. There's lots of honest dialogue about what works and what doesn't. It's a time to get real honest and ask the tough questions. Some share how they have won victories in their lives. Others share the areas in which they struggle. But we always pray for one another and encourage one another through our physical and spiritual journeys of life.

My wife and I host one of these cell groups in our home. You are welcome to visit any Sunday or Wednesday and begin to explore and experience all that life has to offer.
