

Are you interested in news reporting, writing, photography, graphics, web design, advertising, public relations or communications? Want to become a cartoonist or newspaper artist?

THE NAVIGATOR,

BC's student newspaper, is interested in you! No previous experience is necessary, but all Navigator staffers should register for Communications 1129, a one-credit News Publication workshop that is scheduled on a to-be-arranged basis. You can set your own hours!

Paid editor positions are available, and performance-based scholarships are awarded at the end of each semester for Navigator staff members who qualify. For additional information, contact Cynthia Lancaster, faculty advisor for The Navigator, in B-229A, e-mail cynthia.lancaster@brazosport.edu or call (979)230-3326.

BC COMMUNICATIONS CLASSES

FALL AND SPRING:

Comm. 1129/1130/2129/ 2130 — News Publication I, II, III, IV

Class time TBA (to be announced) — you set your own hours.

Write and edit stories, take photographs, learn layout and design by working on The Navigator student newspaper, published 3-4 times per semester.

Start with Comm. 1129 for your first semester, then take additional semesters of Navigator publication workshops with Comm. 1130, 2129 and 2130.

OTHER FALL COURSES:

Comm. 1307 — Introduction to Mass Communication

Comm. 1316 — Photojournalism I

Comm. 2311 — News Gathering and Writing I

OTHER SPRING COURSES:

Comm. 1307 — Introduction to Mass Communication (Internet)

Comm. 1317 — Photojournalism II

Comm. 2315 — News Gathering and Writing II