Withdrawals

Withdrawal from the course is the student's responsibility. An instructor may process an "administrative withdrawal" on a student for excessive absences but is not obligated to do so. It is the student's responsibility to ensure, prior to the deadline for withdrawal, that he or she has been officially withdrawn. Because you stop attending a class, does not mean that you have officially withdrawn from the class. If a student stops participating in class and is not officially withdrawn, that student will receive a failing grade for the semester. Withdrawal paperwork must be submitted on or before the withdrawal deadline published in the BC calendar.
