Allied Health Track: Certified Nurse Aide to Patient Care Assistant/Technician

This program provides an opportunity for Certified Nurse Aides to earn a stacked credential and become a Patient Care Assistant/Technician (PCA/PCT). The student's CNA license must be current, in good standing, and license holder must have at least 1 year of working experience as a CNA during the last 3 years (before start date of the program). Under the supervision of medical and nursing staff, PCA/PCT provide basic care in hospitals, nursing homes, urgent care centers, wound care centers, home care agencies and long term care facilities to assist patients with activities of daily living. While PCA/PCT tasks may be similar to CNA tasks, additional higher level responsibilities such as performing EKG's and phlebotomy can also be expected from a PCA/PCT and will be taught in this program.

Career Pathways

Career Pathways

Career Pathways offers students the opportunity to acquire a combination of basic academic skills and industry-specific training at the same time for zero or very little expense. You can train for a career and complete your high school equivalency diploma or improve English language skills at the same time. If you have a high school diploma you can also benefit from Career Pathways by improving your academic skills while receiving workforce preparation and training. Successful completion of this program may lead to a career and employment opportunities in high-demand occupations.

Additional Benefits to Career Pathways:

- Support in selecting pathway or enrolling in college
- Adult Education provides financial assistance for tuition
- Students receive ongoing support throughout the program
- Increased career and/or employment potential

Current Career Pathways Training Programs:

Some programs are two-semester classes with level one college certificates. Students complete college courses while improving basic skills (including math, reading, writing, and Texas Success Initiative (TSI) or high school equivalency (HSE) preparation) at the same time.

- Certified Nurse Aide (CNA)
- Child Development Associate
